News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Danielle Rose Named in Benchmark Litigation's Top 250 Women in Litigation 2024

August 16, 2024

Publication: Benchmark Litigation

Benchmark Litigation has again named Kobre & Kim's Danielle Rose as one of their Top 250 Women in Litigation. The 2024 version of the publication features the "most distinguished women in the world of litigation." Benchmark compiled its list based on peer and client review as well as consideration of recent case work.

The guide highlights Ms. Rose's expertise in high-stakes commercial litigation, often arising from significant market disruptions, contested transactions or other special situations.

Click here to read the full guide.

Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.