Am Law 2021 Diversity Scorecard Continues Top Recognition of Kobre & Kim's Diversity

May 25, 2021

Publication: The American Lawyer

Kobre & Kim continues to achieve top rankings in the latest 2021 Diversity Scorecard by The American Lawyer, once again placing among the top ten law firms overall. The firm is especially proud to be recognized in the top five for both the percentage of minority partners and the percentage of minority equity partners, with 26.6% of the firm's partnership consisting of U.S. minority lawyers.

The Diversity Scorecard records the number of U.S. minority attorneys – Asian American, Black, Latino or Hispanic, Native American and self-described multiracial attorneys – at Am Law 200 and National Law Journal 250 law firms during 2020.

With a team spanning four continents, the diversity of Kobre & Kim reflects the communities around the globe where we live and work. Diversity of perspective and experience are cornerstones of the firm's success that generate effective, out-of-the-box solutions for our clients.
