

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

China Law & Practice Shortlists Kobre & Kim for International Dispute Resolution Work

August 9, 2016

Publication: China Law & Practice

Kobre & Kim's work steering clients through international business disputes has been recognized by China Law & Practice, a legal and risk management resource for investors, executives, and in-house counsel in the People's Republic of China. The firm was shortlisted as a "Dispute Resolution Firm of the Year" in the international category in the publication's 2016 awards. The awards recognize the top transactions and leading lawyers and law firms representing multinational businesses and investors in China's complex and challenging business climate. The winners were announced at a September 21 ceremony in Beijing.

For more information about the China Law & Practice awards, please email inquiries@kobrekim.com.