Kobre & Kim Ranked Top in the Nation by Chambers USA

May 24, 2013

Publication: Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business

Kobre & Kim has been recognized eight times for its white-collar and government investigation litigation practice in the 2013 edition of Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business.

In New York and Washington DC, the firm's practice "continues to impress with its dedicated approach to litigation" and was highlighted for their ability to "handle matters with international aspects" due to its global presence across the British Virgin Islands, Hong Kong, London, and the U.S. Eric Bruce received special mention for his deep Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) knowledge and extensive white-collar trial experience. Firm co-founders Michael Kim and Steven Kobre also received individual recognition.

In Florida, Kobre & Kim's practice received accolades "for providing practical and useful advice within a quick timeframe." Chambers USA also noted that the firm is "very well-known and well respected among those who do sophisticated, complex white-collar work." Team members who received special mention include Matthew Menchel, for being "a great tactician in the courtroom," and Andrew Lourie for being "a very good strategic thinker who is very in tune with clients' needs." Additionally, Daniel Rashbaum won praise for his "unrelenting energy and problem solving abilities."
