

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Asia-Based Former U.S. Federal Prosecutor Vasu Muthyala to Explore FCPA's Impact at Mumbai Forum

February 10, 2017

Asia-based member of the firm's Government Enforcement Defense team and former federal prosecutor Vasu Muthyala will discuss how governments tackle corruption in multiple jurisdictions at the International Bar Association Asia Pacific Regional Forum Biennial Conference in Mumbai, India.

The February 17 panel, titled "Corruption and its impact on companies and economies in the Asia Pacific region," will highlight how the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) affects Asian countries and its the extraterritorial reach, as well as practical steps that organizations can take to prevent corruption.

More information about the conference can be viewed here.