KOBRE & KIM | DISPUTES AND INVESTIGATIONS

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Carrie Tendler to Discuss Recovering Assets From Sovereign State Debtors

February 5, 2021

Kobre & Kim's Carrie Tendler will join the "Sovereign States – a Rorschach Test?" panel hosted by ThoughtLeaders 4 Fire to discuss asset recovery against sovereign states on February 9, 2021 at 2:00 pm EST.

Ms. Tendler will discuss the unique considerations that must be taken into account when debtors are sovereign states. She will also address recent reforms and challenges in enforcing judgments and arbitration awards, such as the termination of Intra-EU bilateral investment treaties (BITs), offering insights into how to potentially navigate such novel issues.

Alongside Ms. Tendler, the panel will feature Joana Rego and Jenna Burton of Raedas, Jon Felce of PCB Litigation, Ruth Teitelbaum of Tenor Capital, Matthew McGrath of Emissary Holdings and Alex Just of Montfort Communications.

Please click here to register for the panel.

Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.