

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Daniel Saval Explores the Complex World of Tort Claims in Insolvency

June 22, 2023

Kobre & Kim's Daniel Saval, who focuses on high-value multijurisdictional disputes and investigations related to insolvency, will moderate an INSOL International Focus Webinar on "Tortious Liabilities" at 1:00 pm London time on July 6, 2023. The discussion will explore the complex world of tort law within the context of insolvency and bankruptcy proceedings across various jurisdictions.

The panelists will discuss the damages and remedies available to recover stakeholder value, from identifying the types of claims that can arise (including negligence, fraud and misrepresentation), to assessing the factors that contribute to establishing liability. The discussion will apply real-world examples and examine notable case studies and legal decisions that have shaped the landscape of tortious liabilities.

Click here to register \(fee required\).