

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Jason Kang to Speak at 4th Compliance Management and Practice Conference in Shanghai

June 16, 2025

Kobre & Kim's Jason Kang will speak at the upcoming 4th Compliance Management and Practice Conference (CMPC) in Shanghai on June 20, 2025, at 9:35am CST. Mr. Kang will give a presentation on U.S. Asset Forfeiture and Defense Strategies for Chinese Companies.

The CMPC brings together leading voices in corporate compliance to discuss emerging risks, regulatory updates, and case studies, with the goal of fostering a collaborative environment for compliance professionals across industries. Mr. Kang will draw on his experience in cross-border enforcement matters to share practical strategies for Chinese companies navigating U.S. asset forfeiture risks.

Click here to read more about the event.