Kobre & Kim's Jason Kang and Henry Cheung to Speak on Cross-Border Insolvency and Asset Recovery

May 27, 2025

Kobre & Kim's Jason Kang and Henry Cheung will share their insights on the panel "Recognition of Cross-Border Insolvency and Restructuring Proceedings and Asset Recovery," organized by the Committee of International Lawyers of the Shanghai Bar Association. The event will take place virtually on May 28, 2025, at 14:00 (GMT+8).

Amid increasing global expansion by Chinese enterprises and continued volatility in international markets, the panel will explore practical legal strategies for recognizing insolvency and restructuring proceedings across jurisdictions and recovering overseas assets. The discussion will focus on how Chinese companies can manage legal risks when operating abroad. The event brings together leading legal professionals to discuss emerging challenges and cross-border solutions in today's complex business landscape.
