KOBRE & KIM | DISPUTES AND INVESTIGATIONS

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Martin De Luca Explores Sports Disputes in Exclusive Cambridge Forums Event

March 11, 2022

The world of global sports is rife with disputes and investigations, from issues related to integrity, conflict of interest and antitrust surrounding the increasingly lucrative ownership of sports teams by ultra-high-net-worth individuals, investors and companies; to ethics, governance and justice in sports law; to the impact of COVID-19 on the balance sheets of sporting properties.

Kobre & Kim's Martin De Luca was among the 48 top practitioners invited by Cambridge Forums to discuss these and other issues in sports law during the International Forum on Sports Law that took place from March 6 to 8, 2022.

Click here for more details.

Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.