Martin De Luca to Join Panel on Anti-Corruption Policy, Ethics and Integrity in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

December 4, 2019

Former U.S. Department of Justice Prosecutor and São Paulo-based lawyer Martin De Luca will be a featured speaker on a panel at the 1st International CGE RJ (Controller General of the State of Rio de Janeiro) Forum on Anticorruption Policy, Ethics, and Integrity in the State of Rio de Janeiro on December 5th.

The forum aims to “promote a multidisciplinary debate by academics, professionals, representatives of some countries and non-governmental entities” on issues surrounding anti-corruption within the Brazilian state.

Mr. De Luca will be discussing challenges associated with private integrity in regards to relations with the state, and he will be joined by representatives from the Global Impact UN, the Comptroller General of the Union, and the State Comptroller General’s Office of Rio de Janeiro.

Also featured on the agenda will be roundtables with topics that include building integrity in the public sector, as well as discussions of new perspectives on companies’ compliance programs.
