

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Miranda Ching to Speak on Women in Financial Crime at TIPS Network Event in London

May 19, 2025

Kobre & Kim's Miranda Ching will join a panel discussion hosted by the TIPS Women's Network, taking place on 21 May 2025 at Alix Partners in London. The event brings together women professionals working across the financial crime space to share experiences, challenges, and advice on navigating and building a career in this fast-evolving area of law.

Ms. Ching will speak alongside other leaders in financial crime enforcement and compliance, to discuss the incidence of fraud and corruption between genders, considering the impact on and perpetration by women.

Click here learn more about the event.