KOBRE & KIM | DISPUTES AND INVESTIGATIONS

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Rebecca Hume to Lead INSOL International Virtual Panel on Successful Global Restructuring

November 16, 2020

Join Kobre & Kim's Cayman-based Rebecca Hume, who has deep experience handling complex insolvency litigation linked to offshore jurisdictions, as she chairs an INSOL International virtual panel on successful global restructuring at 9am Cayman time / 2pm GMT, November 18, 2020.

The panel, titled "Overcoming the Hurdles to a Successful Global Restructuring," will examine the tools available in the offshore world, the U.S. and Latin America to facilitate global restructurings by reference to case studies. Ms. Hume will also lead the discussion on whether any changes that have been or are about to be implemented will make a difference to successfully restructuring global business.

Click here to register for the webinar, part of the INSOL Cayman Virtual Seminar.

Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.