KOBRE & KIM | DISPUTES AND INVESTIGATIONS

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Robin Rathmell Explores Private Client Asset Forfeiture Defense at the Cambridge Forum

February 5, 2019

Kobre & Kim attorney Robin Rathmell analyzes the relationship between onshore and offshore jurisdictions in asset forfeiture actions at the Cambridge Forum on Protecting the Wealthy, their Assets and Advisors on February 11. Robin, who has extensive experience representing high-net-worth individuals in asset forfeiture defense, will lead the panel “Asset Forfeiture Defense in the Private Client Context,” which will explore the various types of asset forfeiture claims, compare defensive litigation strategies and discuss the upward trend in criminal and civil forfeiture actions brought by the government against high-value individuals.

Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.